

List of publications produced by the University of Brighton using data from the Physio First Data for Impact scheme

- 2022 Fiddler, H., Bryant, L., Murtagh, S. & Olivier, G. (2022). How does the use of standardised data collection inform the educational needs of physiotherapists working in private practice? Physiotherapy. 114, Supplement 1, p. e216 1 p. For full text click here.
- 2022 Bryant, E., Murtagh, S., Trosh, C. & Olivier, G. (2022) Implementation of an online PROM in private practice in the UK. Physiotherapy, 114, Supplement 1, p. e218 1 p. For full text click here.
- 2021 Murtagh, S., Bryant, E., Hebron, C., Ridehalgh, C., Horler, C., Trosh, C., Olivier, G. (2021). Management of low back pain: Treatment provision within private practice in the UK in the context of clinical guidelines. Musculoskeletal care. For full text click here.
- 2019 Bryant, L., Murtagh, S., Olivier, G., Lewis, S., & Moore, A. (2019). Gathering and utilising musculoskeletal data from private physiotherapists to demonstrate the value of their services: a UK based project. Abstract from World Confederation of Physical Therapy 2019, Geneva, Switzerland. For full text click here.
- 2019 Murtagh, S., Bryant, L., Olivier, G., & Lewis, S. (2019). The development of the Quality Assured Practitioner (QAP) Scheme in Private Physiotherapy Practice in the UK. Abstract from World Confederation of Physical Therapy 2019, Geneva, Switzerland. For full text click here.
- 2019 Murtagh, S., Bryant, L., Olivier, G., & Lewis, S. (2019). Exploring the feasibility of implementing an online patient reported outcome measure for patients attending private physiotherapy treatment in the UK. Abstract from World Confederation of Physical Therapy 2019, Geneva, Switzerland. For full text click here.
- 2018 Olivier G, Murtagh S, Bryant E. (2018). Dfl: why should I? Invited presentation at the Physio First Annual Conference 2018, Nottingham 27th-29th April 2018.
- 2018 Murtagh, S., Bryant, E., & Olivier, G. (2018). Duration of symptoms and outcomes of treatment in musculoskeletal patients in private practice. Abstract from Physiotherapy UK Conference, Birmingham, United Kingdom. For full text click here.
- 2018 Murtagh, S., Bryant, E., Moore, A., Canby, G., McCrum, C., Mercer, C., Finucane, L., & Smith, T. (2018). Exploring the psychometric properties of the Brighton musculoskeletal patient reported outcome measure. Abstract from Physiotherapy UK Conference, Birmingham, United Kingdom. For full text click here.
- 2018 Bryant, E., Murtagh, S., Olivier, G., & Moore, A. (2018). Data for Impact: exploring the benefits of standardised data collection in private physiotherapy practices across the UK. Abstract from Physiotherapy UK Conference, Birmingham, United Kingdom. For full text click here.
- 2017 Olivier, G., Bryant, E., & Murtagh, S. (2017). Quality, quality assurance and quality assured practitioners. In Touch: The Journal of Physio First, 160, 36-40. For full text click here.

List of publications produced by the University of Brighton using data from the Physio First Data for Impact scheme

- 2016 Bryant, E., Moore, A., Olivier, G., Murtagh, S., Defever, E., Lewis, S., Simpson, P., Winrow, K., Lewis, E., & Donnelly, P. (2016). The use of standardised data collection in private physiotherapy practice to provide information for clinicians, clinics and private practice organisations. 0-0. Abstract from IFOMPT 2016. For full text click here.
- 2012 Moore, A., Bryant, E. & Olivier, G. (2012). Development and use of standardised data collection tools to support and inform musculoskeletal practice. Manual Therapy. 17, 2012, p. 489-496. For full text click here.